

END YOUR DAY THE SMART WAY

The last 1–2 hours of Disneyland can either be the most stressful... or the most productive part of your entire day.

OPTION 1: LEAVE SMART

- ✓ Watch fireworks from Pixar Pals Parking Structure
- ✓ Head out before the big exit rush
- ✓ Skip traffic, trams, and long lines leaving

Best for families with exhausted kids.

OPTION 2: STAY LATE

- ✓ Stay inside the park after fireworks
- ✓ Head straight to your top rides
- ✓ Enjoy some of the shortest waits of the day

IF YOU STAY

- ✓ Go to the rides that were longest earlier
- ✓ Move quickly... this window is limited
- ✓ Re-ride your favorites with way less wait

PRO TIP: Ride during fireworks for even shorter lines!

WHY STAY LATE?

Night rides are cooler and more comfortable

Shorter lines mean more rides (and more magic!)

Kids are tired, but this is when you get the most done!

REAL MOM TIP

If your family can handle staying a little later, this is where Disneyland goes from “busy” to actually enjoyable again.

“Your kids won’t remember how many rides they rode. They’ll remember the churro you shared, sitting next to you on a ride, and spending the day together.”
